WHAT WE DO

The PAIF is working towards bridging the gap between health care services and the patients. As a known fact in Sub-Saharan Africa, there are many more ill-stricken people who for a number of reasons are unable to access health care. PAIF works hard to reach such persons who appear to be invisible and voiceless. PAIF organizes health events in deep rural areas where governments of such countries seem to have been unable to provide medical care. Our main targets are mainly women, children and aged. However generally our programs are organized on extensive basis to reach all persons needing health care.

In summary, the PAIF aims include;

- 1) Advocating for better health care services in African countries where health services are acutely deficient.
- 2) Partnering with professional health bodies, governmental & non-governmental organizations and corporate institutions to upgrade health services in these countries.
- 3) Establishing affordable and accessible health structures such as (primary health centers and local hospitals) to regions where these facilities are not present.
- 4) Upgrading facilities that have been badly managed in the respective primary health centers and local hospitals.
- 5) Organizing exchange program for health personnel where students and professionals will have the opportunity to impact on the lives of the less-privilege by providing them, with better health care services.

WHERE WE OPERATE

PAIF team operates basically in Africa but aims at establishing branches within several regions in various continents. Currently, the PAIF has its headquarters in Europe and an operational branch in Ghana.

ABOUT US

PAIF is an international non-governmental organization established in 2013. It was established by a group of professionals. The founder, Kofi Bonsu is a Ghanaian based in Italy, formed the organization with the view of reaching the many people situated in the rural-areas of sub-Saharan African countries with the needed health care services. The organization was formed with the support of his other colleague professionals to race in delivering vital health care to remote communities across Africa.

OUR VISION

A world in which health care reaches everyone, everywhere.

OUR MISSION

Is to make the 'last mile' the most important in health care delivery: creating, showing and sharing the solutions for achieving truly equitable health care.
